Spirituality policy

Spirituality is a powerful force that determines what we are, and our self-understanding. We recognise that it forms the basis for successful relationships, and shapes our behaviour and outlook on life, others and the world.

Spiritual development relates to that aspect of inner life through which we acquire insight into our personal experiences, which are of enduring worth.

At Stanion Church of England Primary School the spiritual dimension is expressed through our Christian faith, and the recognition of the spiritual nature of mankind.

Our ethos enables and encourages all children to grow and flourish spiritually.

It is our aim that the children's individual spiritual development is fostered as an integral element of the range of learning opportunities and experiences they encounter as part of the curriculum, and that it permeates all strands of school life.

Legal Framework: Links to OFSTED and SIAMS expectations

The OFSTED School Inspection Handbook, November 2019 No. 190017, page 59 & 60, states:

Inspectors will evaluate the effectiveness of the school's provision for pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural education. This is a broad concept that can be seen across the school's activities but draws together many of the areas covered by the personal development judgement.

Provision for the spiritual development of pupils includes developing their:

- ability to be reflective about their own beliefs (religious or otherwise) and perspective on life
- knowledge of, and respect for, different people's faiths, feelings and values
- sense of enjoyment and fascination in learning about themselves, others and the world around them
- use of imagination and creativity in their learning
- willingness to reflect on their experiences.

The SIAMS Evaluation Schedule for Schools and Inspectors, April 2018, includes the question:

- How well does the school support all pupils in their spiritual development, enabling all pupils to flourish? (Strand 2)

Aims

The aims for spirituality at Stanion Church of England Primary School are:

- To provide a context of faith, security and loving relationships to support each child's spiritual search.
- To foster the spiritual development of each child, regardless of age, sex, ability or cultural background.
- To foster self-awareness and promote a feeling of self-worth.
- To develop a set of values, principles and beliefs.
- To develop positive human qualities.

- To develop the children's enthusiasm to explore and learn through enquiry and first hand experiences.
- To enable the children to attribute meaning to experiences.
- To enable the children to value the non-material dimension of life.
- To foster reflection and stillness.
- To foster a sense of meaning, purpose and direction in life.
- To encourage imagination and creativity.
- To develop a sense of awe and wonder at the miracle of creation, life and the natural world.
- To enable the children to experience a sense of enjoyment and fascination in learning about themselves, others, and the world around them, including the intangible.
- To share Christian stories and respond to Christian festivals, rituals and symbols, particularly those from the Anglican tradition.

School Statement on Spirituality

To talk about spirituality is, essentially, to talk about something which is beyond words. At Stanion Church of England Primary School we have tried to make conversations about spirituality accessible to every member of our school community.

We recognise that spiritual development involves increasing our awareness of:

- SELF- being a unique person, and understanding self-perception
- OTHERS- how empathy, concern, compassion and other values and principles can affect relationships.
- WORLD AND BEAUTY- seeing and relating to the physical and creative world through responses to nature and the arts.
- BEYOND- relating to, and increasing understanding of, experiences that are outside the 'every day'.

We recognise that there are spiritual moments within every day at school, and we look to explore and develop these with the children, using the language of ‘wows, ows and nows’.

- WOW- Sometimes we can have wow moments which make us realise that there are wonderful things all around us that take our breath away, and make us think of things that are greater than we are. We might look at something and feel a sense of awe and wonder.
- OW- Sometimes things might go wrong in life, or we might experience pain or witness suffering. These ‘ow’ moments can lead to a greater awareness of the world around us and offer us the chance to make things stronger or better. We refer to the Japanese art of Kintsugi, where broken pots are mended with gold, and look even more beautiful than before. We also refer to the story in the bible, referring to the beauty of light shining through cracked pots.
- NOW- It is really important to pay attention to how you are feeling NOW, and to take time to enjoy moments of joy and wonder that are happening RIGHT NOW.
 - It might be the joy of a piece of music, a painting or a beautiful moment in nature. It could be the words of a friend, a thoughtful moment of friendship or a loving gesture.
 - Sometimes our heads are so full of what has gone on in the past, or what might happen in the future that we forget to enjoy the present.

Stanion Church of England Primary School uses this language and the concepts of wows, ows and nows. These are used to explore relationships with ourselves, with others, with the wider natural world and beyond.

We help the children to understand this by encouraging them to think of experiences and responses in relation to:

WINDOWS: giving children opportunities to become aware of the world in new ways; to wonder about life’s ‘WOWs’ (things that are amazing) and ‘OWs’ (things that bring us up short). In this children are learning about life in all its fullness

MIRRORS: giving children opportunities to reflect on their experiences; to meditate on life’s big questions and to consider some possible answers. In this they are learning from life by exploring their own insights and perspectives and those of others.

DOORS: giving children opportunities to respond to all of this; to do something creative as a means of expressing, applying and further developing their thoughts and convictions. In this they are learning to live by putting into action what they are coming to believe and value.

Our School's Christian Vision:

We are a nurturing school with close links to our community where all are inspired to achieve their best. The school provides education of the highest quality, enabling all to flourish.

Every child is valued and loved for their individual worth. All develop mutual respect based on acceptance and trust. "Love your neighbour as yourself." (Matthew 12:31)

Stanion Church of England primary School:

Love, inspire, flourish, embrace.

The school places a high priority on the spiritual development of all children and adults. We recognise that spirituality is not a single path or a belief system, and that it involves belief in a higher power and a sense of connection to something greater than or beyond ourselves. It can manifest itself as interconnectedness with the rest of humanity and with nature.

As such it can involve:

- asking deep questions about life and death
- deepening connections with others
- experiencing compassion and empathy for others
- feelings of awe and wonder
- seeking and finding happiness beyond material possessions
- seeking meaning and purpose
- wanting to make the world a better place

The children and adults within the school have defined the essence of spirituality within the school, and a selection of responses are included in the appendix of this policy, and within the 'Spirituality' books within the library.

Organisation and Implementation

Spiritual development is an important element of a child's education and fundamental to all other areas of learning. The spiritual growth of pupils is not only dependent on learning in RE; opportunities for enhancing the spiritual well-being of learners are developed in every aspect of our school life.

We support the whole school community to share this responsibility and to develop the shared language of spirituality. Opportunities are available for all to develop spiritually in our supportive and nurturing school inspired by our vision and lived out through our Christian values.

Without curiosity, without the inclination to question, and without the exercise of imagination, insight and intuition, children would lack the motivation to learn. In view of this teaching styles are adopted which:

- Value the children's questions and give them space for their own thoughts, ideas and concerns.
- Enable the children to make connections between aspects of their learning.
- Encourage the children to relate their learning to a wider frame of reference, e.g. asking 'why?', 'how?', and 'where?' as well as 'what?'.

Spirituality is an inherent interwoven part of all aspects of school life and is nurtured and promoted as a natural element of the curriculum.

The following opportunities will be made available, as an integral part of the school's practice, in order to facilitate the development of spirituality:

- To explore values and beliefs, including religious beliefs, and the way in which they impact on peoples' lives.
- Where children already have religious beliefs, to support and develop these beliefs in ways which are personal and relevant to them as an integral part of the school's practice.
- To engage in enquiry and exploration as part of experiential, first hand learning.
- To look attentively and observe carefully.
- To be creative and imaginative.
- To listen with discernment.
- To reflect and respond to issues in moments of quiet or inspired through music, art, text, film or artefacts.
- To explore and develop what animates themselves and others.
- To understand human feelings and emotions, the way they impact on people and how an understanding of them can be helpful.
- To value what is good and worthwhile and to make value judgements through discussion and exchange of views.
- To work collaboratively with peers, valuing the contribution made by others.
- To respect all, as modelled by staff in their relationships with others.
- To experience silent, calm and tranquil moments which afford time for reflection.
- To work and live in harmony with others in the school and wider community.
- To have confidence to express ideas, views and opinions, even if others do not agree.

Opportunities for spiritual development are presented or naturally arise, and are promoted in all aspects of the curriculum and school life as the children become actively engaged in an enquiry based curriculum, which provides a wide range of experiential learning opportunities that enables them to question, consider, reflect and respond, and consider their own values, beliefs and feelings and those of others, with whom they are working alongside or with.

Spirituality in Collective Worship

Collective Worship is the beating heart of Stanion Church of England Primary School. It provides the opportunity for our school community to share experiences, ideas and understanding. It is the context in which the language of spirituality, which we use as a school, is regularly and explicitly shared.

Collective Worship provides the opportunity for pupils to become aware of the importance of reflection and how our positive and negative experiences can be formative. It also provides a real sense of being present (now moments) which are often linked to invitations to pray.

Through daily Collective Worship, pupils are offered a space and a place for hearing the Christian story. They are offered an understanding of worship by being invited to participate in, or observe, Christian spiritual practices such as: prayer, reading and reflection on the Bible and liturgy and are introduced to different musical traditions.

Opportunities to reflect on the glows of life such as beauty and joy of the world are given, as well as time to reflect and empathise with the ow moments of disappointment or pain. Pupils are given time to consider their responsibilities to others and to grow in love and empathy for others, and to share and experience such feelings as happiness, sorrow, hurt, anticipation, fear. Time is given for celebration, both for the accomplishments of school members and to mark seasonal Christian festivals and celebrations in the calendar. In this way pupils are offered time to be able to contemplate and develop spiritually. Collective Worship in our school is always invitational, inspirational and inclusive, with respect for personal and collective beliefs.

Spirituality in Religious Education

The Church of England's Statement of Entitlement outlines the aims and expectations for Religious Education in Church of England Schools and guides this school's approach to RE and spirituality.

Learning activities in RE provide for the needs of all pupils, offering a safe space to explore their own religious, spiritual and/or philosophical ways of seeing, living and thinking, believing and belonging. They provide opportunities to engage in meaningful and informed dialogue with those of all religions and worldviews, linking these to pupils' ideas of spirituality and the language of wows, ows and nows where appropriate.

Spirituality in RE is nurtured and promoted by:

- People, places, things, books, actions and ideas held by religious believers to be holy.
- Ultimate questions of meaning and purpose.
- Ideas of the divine/questions of God.
- Forms of worship.
- Use of music, art and drama to express beliefs.

Spirituality within the Ethos of the Daily Life of the School

In Stanion Church of England Primary School we view spiritual growth as becoming more and more aware of one's natural, innate spirituality. These opportunities happen throughout each and every day as children deal with delight, disappointment and the chance to be present with themselves.

In order to facilitate spiritual development the organisation of the school and the environment for learning are such that:

- Everyone involved in the life of the school is valued and seen to be valued.
- Policies and ensuing practices are clearly seen to reflect the worth of individuals.
- Behaviour and people management policies and practices are collectively arrived at and discussed regularly.
- All adults recognise the need to set good examples of mutual respect and considerate behaviour.
- The quality and nature of the learning environment and displays reflect the value placed on pupils and staff.
- Aesthetic awareness is encouraged.
- The atmosphere of the school welcomes differences in beliefs and values, and invites everyone to belong.
- The achievements, successes and efforts of everyone are recognised and celebrated.

The school has a number of areas that are dedicated to quiet reflection, and encourage the children's spiritual development through the use of inspirational pictures, artefacts and through sharing the beauty of nature. These areas include the reflective spaces in classrooms and in the hall, and particularly the prayer space in the library. This space has been painted and resourced to allow for quiet reflection and allows the children to respond spiritually in a range of ways and to share their thoughts with others.

Outside there are quiet reflective areas and a garden in Eve's memory which encourages all to reflect, share thoughts and develop spiritually.

The Church of St Peter's is also used regularly and the children engage in practical, creative activities linked to prayer and spiritual development- refer to the appendix for details of 'The Lord's Prayer' project and the Spirituality Project. Responses to these are included in displays in the hall, and within the Spirituality books and spaces around the school. The children are also invited to share their responses on the Spirituality Tree, and to share the thoughts and responses of others within the books.

The Behaviour Policy and expectations reflect the school's encouragement of love, care and respect for others, and allows opportunity for reflection, forgiveness and the chance to rebuild.

The children understand that the vision statement is at the heart of the school, and all are aware of the importance of treating each other with love and respect:

"Love your neighbour as yourself."

Assessment

Spirituality will be assessed as an integral part of curriculum practice and the children's involvement in the life of the school community.

These are areas in which children are expected to grow as part of their spiritual development:

- Reflect on their experiences with increasing sensitivity.
- Question and explore the meaning of experience.
- Understand and evaluate a range of possible reasons and interpretations.
- Develop personal views and insights.
- Apply insights gained with increasing degrees of perception to their own lives in line with the school's Anglican status and history.
- Know that belief is valuable and that the Christian belief is endorsed by the whole school community.

Recording, Monitoring and Evaluation

Provision for spiritual development is monitored and reviewed by:

- Monitoring of teaching and learning and work scrutiny by RE/Collective Worship Leader, senior management, Head Teacher and governors.
- Pupil Voice.
- Spirituality Learning Walk.
- Discussions at staff and Governing Body meetings, particularly involving the Ethos Committee.

- Audits of policies and schemes of work.
- RE and Collective Worship Development Plans.

The Ethos Committee of Stanion Primary School review the policy every two years in partnership with Senior Leaders and consider any views expressed by parents, children and staff in order to make any changes or recommendations. Recommendations are fed back to the full governing body and are then actioned as appropriate.

Governors ensure that this policy is fully implemented and that practice is consistent with the school's Christian vision, in line with the school's monitoring policy and schedule for governors.

Prayer : What Spirituality means to US at Stanion Church of England Primary School

Mysterious God

Most of the time we can explain what happens in the world by science

But sometimes we may see a glimpse of something beyond:

The joy of seeing a sparkling rainbow growing in the sky,

The excitement of going to school every day, wondering what we will learn,

The delight of watching things grow, live happily and flourish.

In these wow moments, help us to be aware of something greater than ourselves

Finding understanding through reflection and prayer.

Comforting God,

Most of the time we feel safe and secure

But sometimes life can be difficult and painful

The emotion of knowing that you need to keep going even when you are at your lowest,

The sadness of losing a loved one,

The bravery to step into the darkness and to face your fears.

In these ow moments, help us to be brave in the way we look after ourselves and others,

Seeking support through reflection and prayer.

Constant God,

Most of the time we are busy running or learning or playing,

But sometimes it's good simply to be in the moment,

To think about NOW

The quiet of lying in a field of flowers that never ends,

Looking at the evening sky.

The peace of falling snow,

Lying in my bed under a blanket of calm.

The chance to help myself and others

So that happiness is everywhere

In these now moments, help us to enjoy each moment,

Finding spirituality through reflection and prayer.
